STORYTIME

Once upon a time...

a curious young bear wandered into Winchester, drawn to the bustling Brooks Shopping Centre.

His fur was a warm mix of brown and gold, and his big, kind eyes sparkled with a sense of wonder. One crisp autumn morning, the bear appeared outside the shopping centre, gazing through the windows at the smiling customers.

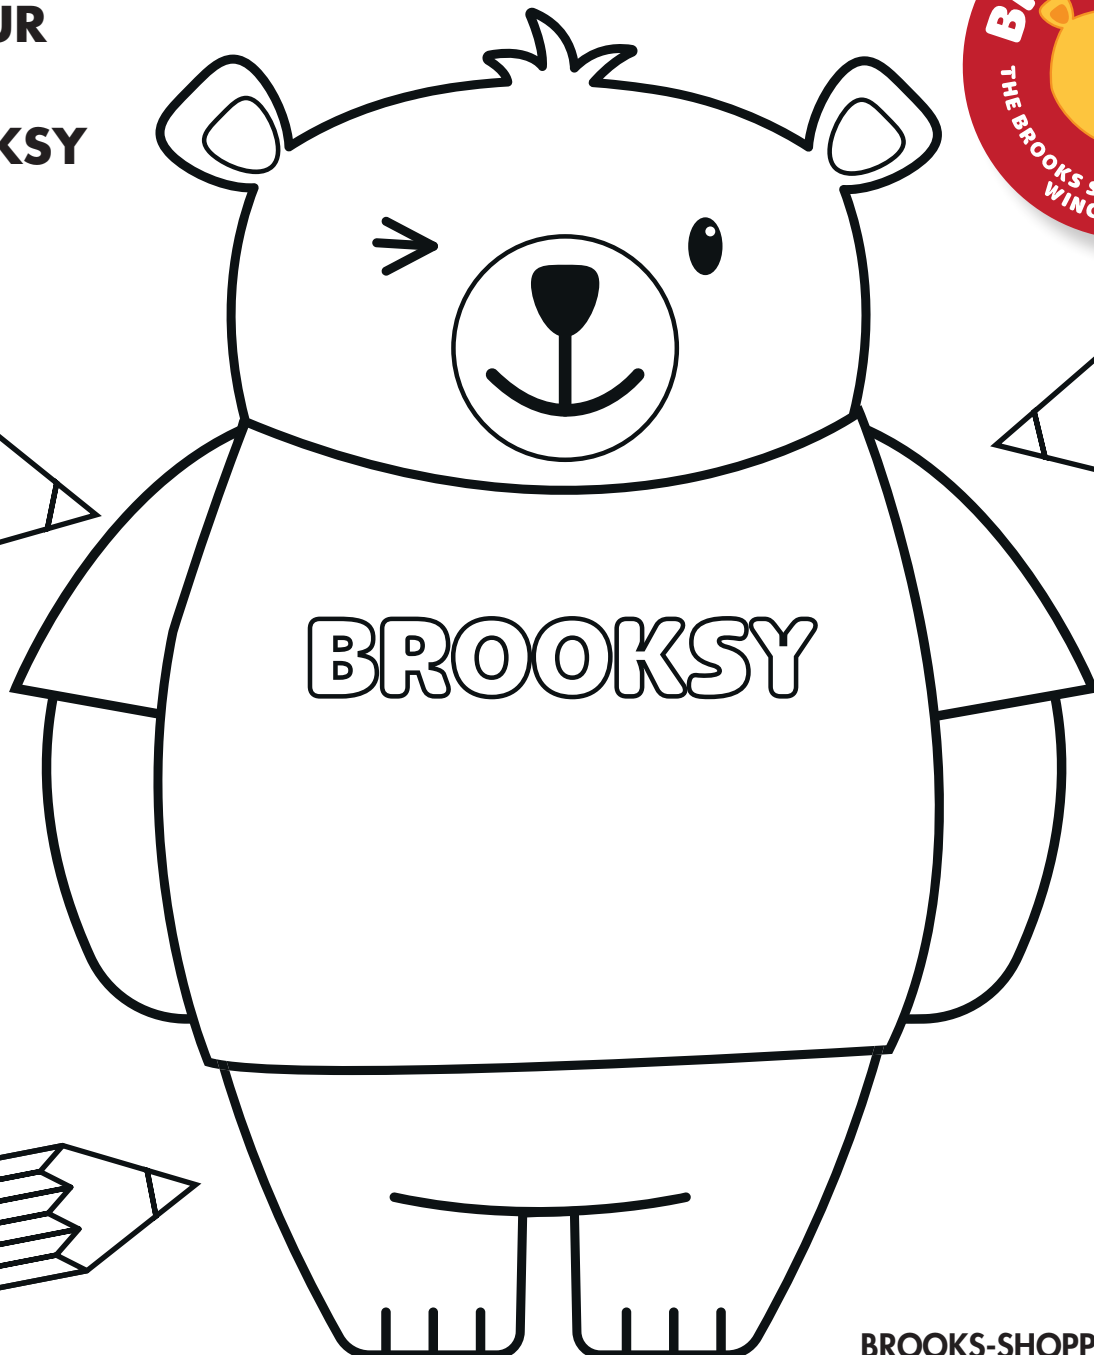

Mrs. Brooks, the friendly manager, noticed him and decided to let him in.

To her surprise, the bear wasn't afraid. Instead, he stood in the entrance, greeting visitors with a gentle smile. People loved him instantly—children stopped to pet him, and adults admired his friendly demeanor. It wasn't long before the bear became a local sensation, bringing joy to everyone who visited.

Seeing how much the community adored him, Mrs. Brooks officially made the bear the shopping centre's mascot.

They named him Brooksy Bear. Brooksy's presence became a symbol of warmth and welcome, reminding everyone that no matter how busy life got, there was always a little bit of magic at Brooks. And so, Brooksy Bear became the heart and soul of the shopping centre, spreading happiness for years to come.
